

26th October 2007

To all SCOS members

Safety, Health & Environment Forum (Scotland) S.HE.F. (S) 70th Anniversary Gala Dinner

I am writing to advise you of a prestigious Health & Safety event that will take place at the Crowne Plaza Hotel, in Glasgow on Saturday 10th November 2007.

A Gala Dinner will celebrate the 70th Anniversary of the Safety, Health & Environment Forum (Scotland) - SHEF(S), formerly known as the Strathclyde Health & Safety Group.

This event will be attended by dignitaries representing the whole cross section of Industry, Commerce & Government including The Right Honourable The Lord Cullen of Whitekirk, Lord Mackenzie of Luton, Stewart Campbell, Director of the Health and Safety Executive (Scotland) and the Chief Officer of Strathclyde Fire and Rescue, Brian Sweeney, who will be giving the after dinner speech, as well as Senior Managers in safety from Scotland and beyond.

A top class dance band will provide entertainment at the event with a special contribution from Strathclyde Fire & Rescue Pipe Band, with the award winning culinary team of the Crowne Plaza hotel providing dinner.

This prestigious "black tie " event, as well as recognising the contribution of member organisations to improving Health & Safety over the past 70 years, also has future safety needs firmly in mind.
